ALLIES LYING IN WAIT

Captain Koenig Praises America For Fair Treatment.

Baltimore, Aug. 2.—The German submarine Deutschland sailed on her return voyage to Germany late last afternoon. She carried a cargo of rubber, nickel and, it is understood, a consignment of gold.

The Deu's hand's tender, the tug Thomas F. Timmins, drew the submarine out into the main channel. There the two lines were cast off and the submarine proceeded down the bay under its own power.

The coast guard cutter Wissabickon followed close behind, and little further back was the Timmins. A few sight-seeing motor boats followed, but they were kept at a distance by city police boats.

As the Deutschland left the wharf flags were run aboard the German liner Neckar. Her crew lined the rail hearing and shouting farewells to their countrymen aboard the submarine.

Annapolis, thirty miles south of here, reported the Deutschland passed there before 9 o'clock, moving about twelve miles an hour, the tug Timmins conveying her and newspaper dispatch boats following. The coast guard cutter had disappeared.

Captain Koenig and crew had put to sea knowing that a man hurried to a telephone with a message to the entente allies' agents that the Deutschland had started. They knew he had been watching day and night from the end of a pier, but the little captain went away smiling.

His last words here were praise for America and treatment given him and crew.

"We go back with certain friendliest feeling existing in America for Germany. You have been more than courteous and the Fatherland won't forget," he said.

Gardner and Swanger

Frederick D. Gardner, of St. Louis, won the democratic gubernatorial nomination in Missouri by a substantial plurality. John W. Atkinson, of Doniphan, was second with Cornelius Roach, of Carthage and A. N. Lindsay, of Clinton running a close race for third. Senator James Reed, of Kansas City, was nominated overwhelmingly over O. S. Roberts. Walter S. Dickey was leading the republican senatorial candidates by a sweeping vote. In the republican race for the gubernatorial nomination, John E. Swanger had a lead over all his opponents. Henry Lamm of Sedalia, was running second.

Banquet Is Held in Barn

While Cows Are Milked.

For the purpose of emphasizing the sanitary condition of the dairy of the state hospital at Napa, Calif., the Napa County Live Stock Association held its annual banquet in the barn where the cattle are kept, according to the August Popular Mechanics Magazine. Long tables were placed in an area between rows of stalls, and covers laid for 120 persons. In the same room with the banqueters were 200 cows in their stalls. While the men ate, the cows were milked by employees of the dairy.

Popular Mechanics for August

The August number of Popular Mechanics Magazine is crowded with unusual features and is one of the best of an always excellent periodical.

In an editorial on "Applied Patriotism," H. H. Windsor praises the prompt assembling of state militias and the inspiring response made by organizations and individuals on all sides, but adds:

"We have the spirit and we have the men, but there are things even more essential, which we lack. A long campaign crying 'Preparedness' now finds its justification. The machine-gun companies of the Illinois National Guard assembled, and should they go to the front, must leave without a machine gun; for the entire Illinois Guard owns but two machine guns and they are in the repair shop! Perhaps the present awakening to our peril and utterly inexcusable condition may, providentially, result in such a strong expression of public sentiment as will turn our state and national representatives from dreams of pork barrels and personal schemes long enough to at least provide us with tools of defense. We have skated on thin ice long enough. Our size and wealth demand a thoroughly trained standing army of 200,000, with a Navy in proportion, and equipment and a large supply of ammunition for 1,000,000 men, and when all of this is done the relative protection will, doubtless, be less than the present police protection in any of our large cities."

In another editorial Mr. Windsor points out the great opportunity which will be presented to advance the cause of international conciliation at the end of the present war.

Old Fashioned Justice.

Judge Arthur Wallace of the Jefferson Circuit bench delivers an opinion that the wife who was spanked with a fence picket by the husband she had chased across the common is a spoiled and uncontrolled young woman and is not entitled to divorce. It is not right, opines His Honor, to belabor one's wife with a pailing. But the provocation was extreme, the action was regretted, and the wife was not undeserving of harsh treatment. There still is in the Virginia code, we believe, a provision under which a husband may whip his wife with a switch no larger than his first finger. It is a relic of pioneer days. Evidently Judge Wallace believes that Virginia code makes common sense allowance for the fact that a pestered husband can not always confine himself to "language."—State Journal.

Stanley Men Secure

With the exception of Don P. Marton, all of the appointees of Commissioner L. A. Washington to the offices of mayor and commissioners of the city of Paducah have waived further claims to the offices, and have announced their unwillingness to prosecute further attempts, through the courts, to secure the offices which are now filled by appointees of Gov. Stanley. Edwin J. Paxton, Frank N. Burns and Zach C. Bryant have announced their intentions to retire from further litigation and to abide by the decision of the three judges of the Court of Appeals.

Commissioner L. A. Washington has joined Board No. 1, and was present at Monday's meeting.—Paducah News Democrat.
